TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

Lisbon, April, 25th (night)—The political exiles, condemned by the Court Martial in Oporto and who were not subsequently amnestied, have just embarked for the different parts of Africa assigned as their respective places of banishment.

Paris, April 27th—It is stated that many important strikes will take place in various industrial centres of the different European countries immediately after the workmen's demonstrations on the 1st prox. for which great preparations are being made.

London Ap. 27.—Telegrams received at the Admiralty announce that the English men of war are ascending the Pungue River, but that the British troops are evacuating Massikasseland.

Berlin Ap. 27.—The funeral of Field Marshal von Moltke will take place tomorrow with great solemnity, all the expenses being defrayed by the Public Treasury.

Vienna Ap. 27.—Telegrams from Bucharest announce that the elections that have just been held are completely in favour of the Government.

THE POOR OF BUENOS AYRES.

Houseless, homeless and starving, there are thousands of persons in our city whose condition is so desperate that something must be done promptly for their relief. The waggons of the Ensenada Railway are now turned into a species of night refuge, with the connivance of the Company, for the unemployed hundreds of the south end of our city. Major Barritt of the Salvation Army receives 47 persons nightly, to whom, however, he is unable so far to give other hospitality than the bare boards.

Some four years ago, when two Englishmen were found dead in the empty drainage pipes at the Recoleta, we did our best to impress on the British community the necessity for establishing a Night Refuge, but the suggestion was unheeded, because it was said that paupers of the class we alluded to were undeserving any sympathy. At present we may be told in like manner that the houseless and starving British poor of Buenos Ayres are outside the pale of Christian charity.

Perhaps it is wrong to plead for these poor people as British paupers; they have sufficient claim as fellow-creatures on our consideration. In effect it is not merely English poor that we have now to think of, but thousands of Italians and other Europeans, who are starving. The number of suicides among the working classes is unprecedented.

In awful contrast with such a state of things we see carriages drawn by Russian horses, superb town-houses and princely suburban villas, with servants in handsome liveries and all the appliances of wealth and luxury. On the one hand men and women starving, and sleeping in unused railway waggons; on the other a display of wealth bordering on licentious luxury.

Society is on a volcano when affairs reach such a pass, and it is most urgent for the Government to prevent unpleasant consequences by establishing soup-kitchens. Such distress was never before known in Buenos Ayres.

THE NAPOSTA SUFFERERS.

Two of the poor women who formed part of the ill-fated Gartland colony have been relieved by death from their trials. One died at the Women's Hospital on Saturday, from typhus fever; the other, Mrs. Cleary, from exhaustion and decline, on Sunday, at the Hotel de Inmigrantes. It is satisfactory for us to be able to add that they received every possible kindness and attention, and that their last moments were soothed by those around them. There can be little doubt that the sufferings which they had undergone hastened their end, and we sincerely hope that their fate may be a lesson to their country-people in Ireland.

We believe there are some 200 of the colonists not yet disposed of, and it is much to be regretted that the Irish estancieros of Buenos Ayres have not made the least effort either to help the poor people or to give them employment. It is not, however, too late, and we make this last appeal to our prosperous countrymen in the camp, on their behalf.

Another large sack of clothing was sent to our office yesterday, by Mrs. Davies of Belgrano, and we are requested by the Rev. Mother of the Irish Convent and the ladies who have volunteered in this charitable campaign to say that if a little more men's clothing were provided there would be nothing more needed.

In reply to applications for housemaids we are directed to say that there are no more grown-up girls at the Convent or the Immigrants' Home.

Some of the families engaged last week have been very fortunate. We heard of one married couple engaged for Baradero at $40 a month, with house and maintenance; say £30 a year and found in everthing. It appears, therefore, that the Naposta sufferers may begin to look forward to better times, after having gone through so trying a period of probation.

Meantime we condole sincerely with the families of the two poor women who died on Saturday and Sunday last.

THE CHILIAN REVOLUTION.

THE ENGAGEMENT AT CALDERA.

In the light of the many telegrams received from Santiago and Valparaiso there is no longer any doubt that the rebel flag-ship Blanco Encalada foundered in the bay of Caldera, but the loss of the Huascar, announced officially in telegrams to the Chilian Minister in this city, is denied. It appears that the Huascar was hundreds of leagues distant when the engagement took place at Caldera. Latest advices give a very clear insight into the progress of the revolution on the West Coast. After the surrender of the Government garrisons of Arica and Tacna, the revolutionists remained in quiet possession of the province of Tarapaca; the only danger was the Camus division, which on the approach of the revolutionists and the appearance of the rebel cruiser Esmeralda off Antofagasta crossed the Bolivian frontier and is now marching through Argentine territory to cross the Uspallata pass in front of Mendoza.

No sooner had the revolutionists seized Tarapaca and appointed their own authorities than they turned their eyes further South and planned the seizure of Atacama and Copiapo. They organized an expedition of 1,500 men which were conveyed in the transports Aconcagua and Bio-Bio, escorted by the iron-clad Blanco Encalada and the gun-boat Magallanes, to Caldera and landed in safety. So far matters went smoothly with the revolutionists. Elated with the facile conquest of Caldera, the Blanco Encalada and Magallanes anchored in Caldera Bay and the officers off duty went ashore to celebrate the event.

The seizure of Caldera must have been known in Santiago on the 22nd, for that very day the Government division of torpedoes was ordered out of Valparaiso bay to Caldera to attack or surprise the rebel fleet. The torpedo-catchers Lynch and Condell, a torpedo boat of first-class category, and the Imperiale, sailed out and reached Caldera on the 23rd, before dawn. The Imperiale cruised off the bay, whilst the torpedo-catchers and torpedo boat steamed in. The Blanco only sighted the torpedo-catchers when it was too late; under protection of a thick fog they had advanced quite close and launched torpedoes right and left amidships of the ironclad before the defence-nets could be spread or the Blanco's guns placed in battery. Before sinking, it appears, the Blanco managed to lodge a heavy shot into the Lynch, disabling her there and then. The Blanco Encalada foundered in ten fathoms of water, with 220 men on board, out of which 40 were saved. At that moment the Aconcagua, Magallanes, and Bio Bio must have come up, a desultory fight ensuing in which the torpedo catchers and the torpedo boats were no doubt at a disadvantage, for the gunboat Magallanes carries guns that can disable unarmoured craft like the Lynch and Condell. When the British man-o'-war Warspite came upon the scene, the Government torpedo boats cleared out to sea, fearing no doubt that she might be the Esmeralda, or unable to continue the struggle against the Magallanes and the two transports. One of the many telegrams from Valparaiso states that the first-class torpedo-boat that accompanied the division was sent to the bottom, a very likely occurrence. Another message states that the Lynch had to enter dock at Valparaiso to undergo repairs.

It strikes one forcibly in all this telegraphic news that the revolutionists are to blame themselves for the loss of the Blanco Encalada: had any ordinary precaution been observed the Blanco could have repelled the attack of the torpedo boats. Argentine naval men take the same view of the case and believe that the Blanco can be easily raised, in view of the depth of water and position in which she sank.

Meantime, the revolutionists are advancing; they are now in possession of the three northern provinces of Chile, and at this rate they will soon be at the gates of Santiago and Valparaiso. As they advance their numbers increase, and if they were eight thousand strong when they left Tarapaca, they will be from fifteen to twenty thousand strong when they advance from Copiapo. If their progress be not stopped they will have the whole northern population of Chile with them by the time they invade the provinces of the Centre. Balmaceda, they say, has 35,000 men under arms and is daily amassing larger bodies of troops.

In the progress of the war on the West Coast it will be remarked that the fleet travels south "pari passu" with the revolutionary land divisions, tactics that have given the very best results up to the present, especially as the troops have been spared the march through the northern deserts: the transport of troops by sea has been effected with consummate ease, and but for the loss of the Blanco, through the neglect of her officers and crew, the revolutionary campaign would have been an unbroken record of wonderful success. The loss of the Blanco, however, will make the revolutionary leaders more wary in the future.

MAILS FROM CHILE.

Valparaiso, April 8th

Congress will be formally opened by H. E. the President of the Republic on Monday, at 1.30 p.m.

H. B. Minister, John G. Kennedy, Esq., and Mrs. Kennedy left Viña del Mar for Santiago in yesterday's evening express.

The expected bombardment of Valparaiso on the 28th ult. did not take place, and it is very questionable indeed if the ships will put in an appearance here.

A prolonged shock occurred here on Wednesday, at 4.5 p.m. The shock appears to have been stronger in Santiago than here.

The death of Mr. Rowland, manager of the Iquique Railways, is reported. It is said that the sight of the mutilated body of Colonel Robles gave such a shock to his system, already enfeebled by heart disease, that he succumbed in a few hours.

The elections passed off quietly last Sunday.

The Valparaiso Bank has taken over the liquidation of Edwards and Co.'s Bank.

Wheat was quoted in San Carlos on the 28th ult. at $5.25 per fanega of 150 litros. The crop has been above the average. The crops of peas, beans, potatoes and maize are also unusually abundant. On the majority of the farms in the Department the cattle are attacked with carbuncle, and cases of transmission of the disease to human beings after partaking of the flesh of affected animals are reported.

It is reported that work is about to be resumed on the Transandine Railway. It is understood that Clark and Co. have surmounted their difficulties.

On the 22nd ult. wheat was quoted in Linares at $5.50 per fanega.

Mr. and Mrs. Bangert left Viña del Mar in this morning's express for Andes, en route for Buenos Ayres and England via the Cordillera. We join the numerous friends they have left in Chile in wishing them a safe trip over the Andes, and a pleasant and prosperous voyage home.

Admiral Hotham has gone to Santiago to pay the customary official visit to the President of the Republic.

From information received by the Chilian Minister to Lima from Colonel Arrate and other reliable sources the latest occurrences in Tacna and Arica are known.

After the battle of Pozo Almonte, about 800 men who took part in that affair were got together and were quartered in Arica and Tacna. The Government had given orders to maintain possession of that province, and to withdraw without fighting into Bolivian or Peruvian territory to join the army of the south.

On the 7th a Division of the enemy, of superior numbers, took possession of Arica, and on the 8th of Tacna. The Government Division withdrew into Peruvian territory without fighting.

After the withdrawal of Camus's troops, fighting in Arica or Tacna against superior numbers would have been sterile in results and would have been a useless shedding of blood.

The Government being desirous of avoiding useless encounters, inasmuch as the actual conflict can only be decided by a pitched battle, where the true army of the Nation is to be found, had given orders that all fighting should be avoided in Arica or Tacna.

The situation is now clearly defined. The Fleet dominates in the north; the Government in the south.

It is now necessary that the Fleet move south and that its battalions come to try conclusions with legions that form the real army; or that the army of the South march resolutely to northern territories, otherwise the conflict will be prolonged without benefit to Chile, and without result to the sanguinary struggle initiated by the Fleet.

All students and others in Europe who are subsidised by the Government have been notified that their respective commissions will terminate on April 15; and they must return to Chile by the first steamer leaving after that date. Their pay will be continued until their arrival here. Pay will not be continued after the before mentioned date to those who do not return, but to those who desire to continue their studies at their own expense, a free passage will be granted at any time within two years.

The mobilized civic battalions of Coquimbo and Illapel are to be drafted into the Chacabuco (6th of the line) regiment; Zapadores of the line, and the mobilized battalions Imperial and Caupolican.

The Patria of Iquique says that owing to the arrival of the steamer Serena with a number of cattle, meat fell from one dollar sixty cents to one dollar twenty cents per pound.

The Camus division marching through Argentine territory is said to be 2,500 strong.

A Concepcion paper says a nephew of the late Colonel Robles, don Tobias Robles, has received his commission as captain in the army. Don Tobias held a lucrative situation in the large firm of Messrs. Gleisner and Co., which he has abandoned for the purpose of having an opportunity, as he hopes, of avenging his uncle's cruel death at Pozo Almonte.

Messrs. Alejo Barrios and Francisco Javier Riesdo, two prominent Oppositionists, arrived here from Santiago, and in conformity with an order of expatriation issued against them, they embarked in the R.M.S. Sorata for Europe.

The Illapel battalion, 264 strong, arrived at Ovalle on the 9th instant, en route for Coquimbo.

The Nacimiento battalion, 400 strong arrived at Concepcion on the 10th instant.

The armed transport Imperial, and the torpedo catchers, Condell and Lynch left the harbour at noon, to-day, destination unknown.

The British steamer, Mount Tabor, from Iquique for Europe, with nitrate, has been seized at Coronel, where she put in to coal.

The Government issued a decree on the 1st instant declaring the following ports to be closed to commerce:—Chañaral, Taltal, Antofagasta, Tocopilla, Iquique, Caleta Buena, Junin, Pisagua, and all the intermediate by-ports. We now give the full text of the Decree, to which we understand the British, French, German, and Italian Governments have taken exception. This action led to some difficulty in the dispatch of the steamer Serena on Thursday, but it was finally surmounted and the vessel was allowed to depart. The question raised on the Decree will now be matter for diplomatic negotiations.

Exchange 15¼

Last week a report was circulated to the effect that a mutiny had occurred among the Government troops in Coquimbo, and that the town and port had been taken by the fleet. The report in question obtained a large amount of credence, but it is almost unnecessary to say that it has not been confirmed in any single particular. It was simply a "bola," and in some respects a very clumsy one. The newest thing in connection with the revolution is that the Camus Division, which it will be remembered abandoned Antofagasta to the Fleet and withdrew to Calama, has crossed the Andes into Argentine territory and is said to be nearing Mendoza from whence it will cross into Chile via the Uspallata Pass. The Division is composed of cavalry, artillery, men of the 1st of the Line, of the Andes and Linares battalions, and of the Gendarmes de San Bernardo. It is understood that the Government has taken steps to provide for all the wants of the Division. Later news is to the effect that some of the officers belonging to the Division have arrived at Mendoza, and several persons have started from San Felipe and Los Andes to meet the Division in the Cordillera. It is only natural to suppose that the Commander of the Division will have something very interesting to report of his march of about 11 degrees of latitude.

Outside the occurrences to which reference has been made there is nothing striking or of very great interest to report. The Government continues to raise men for the army, which is now of very considerable strength and is daily becoming more efficient. The torpedo boats and torpedo catchers and the forts of Valparaiso are kept ready for any emergency. Several of the forts have received new guns of such large calibre as to render it a matter of no trifling risk for a hostile vessel to attempt to enter the harbour. This, at least, is the opinion of several foreign commanders. Consequently, there is less probability than ever that Valparaiso will receive a hostile visit from the Fleet. What the Fleet is doing, or where the vessels composing it are stationed, is not known with any degree of certainty. The only thing about which there can be no mistake is that the head-quarters of the Fleet are still at Iquique. There is a rumour that it will move southwards to winter. Little importance, however, attaches to this report. Of far greater probability is the pretty general opinion that the Fleet will not be in a position to move from where it is for some months yet, and in that interval there is a possibility that something may be effected in favor of a peaceful termination to the actual unhappy condition of affairs.

The following notes were exchanged between the commander of the Aconcagua and the commander of the Peruvian gunboat Lima on the occasion of the capture of the Laja:—

Aconcagua to Lima.

Pacocha, March 3, 1891—The steamer Laja, belonging to the Compañia Sud-Americana de Vapores, and sailing under the Chilian flag, has been captured by the vessel under my command for the service of the Constitutional Congress of Chile, off Cocorea Cove, at a distance of nine miles from the Peruvian coast.

As the said steamer conveys troops for your Government I have hastened as much as possible her arrival at her port of destination.

As soon as the troops are disembarked, I shall sail with her in convoy South.

Emilio Valverde.

Lima to Aconcagua.

Pacocha, March 4, 1891.—I have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of your note of yesterday, in which you inform me that you have captured the steamer Laja, belonging to the Compaxia Sud-Americana de Vapores, which sails under the Chilian flag, off Cocorea Cove, a distance of nine miles from the Peruvian coast, and that as soon as she has disembarked the troops belonging to my Government which she brings to this port you shall leave with her in convoy for the South.

Ruperto Alzamora.

The two hours' bombardment of Caldera turns out to be, as we anticipated it would, a myth. The Esmeralda fired, it is said, four shots, and the fort six. No damage was done to the town.

On her last voyage down the steamer Perou took away from Iquique 600 passengers, of whom 280 were repatriated Peruvians.

On the 18th ult. the troops at Illapel were paid twenty dollars each on account of pay, and many of them returned to barracks in the evening drunk. A corporal named Guerra incited some of the men of his company to create a disturbance, and they commenced to fire shots and to yell in most demoniacal fashion. They attempted to leave the barracks, but they were resisted by the two sentries. Guerra then deliberately fired at and wounded both sentries, and brought them to the ground. Just at this moment Captain Vial appeared on the scene, and he narrowly escaped being shot by Guerra, who fired at him, the ball just scratching the skin above the left ear. Captain Vial then snatched a rifle from a soldier, and levelling it at Guerra fired and mortally wounded him. This prompt action on the part of Captain Vial caused the immediate cessation of the disturbance. Much alarm prevailed in the town while the firing was going on, as it was feared the drunken soldiery might burst out of the barracks and commit excesses.

Advices from Peru mention that the immigrants who arrived from Iquique have been sheltered and fed at the Conveut of San Agustin. They were visited by the President, Ministers and private people, who all made them presents of money.

The British Benevolent Society in Callao has been doing good work lately through its President George G. Wilson, Esq., H.B.M. Vice-Consul. Food and lodging have been provided for the distressed British subjects who arrived in H.M.S. Warspite.

The Government has ordered an inquiry into an affair which occurred on board the French steamer Perou, on the trip from Pisco to Callao. It refers to immoralities committed by a certain military officer with Chilian women. When the Captain remonstrated with the officer, the latter threatened him with his revolver and subsequently insulted one of the mates.

A special subscription has been initiated by the British Bnevolent Society, for the benefit of the distressed British subjects who have been turned out of house and home by the disturbances in Chile.

THE "CATALINAS."

In a recent issue of our contemporary, La Nacion, there is detailed an interview between a member of the staff and Sr. Seeber, the manager of the 'Muelles y Depositos de las Catalinas,' which we think of sufficient importance to transcribe. The interview was as follows:—

Question—Do you consider the fall in Catalinas justified.

Answer—The value of the shares depends on various causes: 1st, on the definite recognition of the rights and privileges granted to the Company by the different concessions which have been approved and confirmed by Dr. Malaver, the Attorney-General; 2nd, on the price of gold; and 3rdly, on the continuation of the Port Works, because the completion of the North Darsena will give a tremendous value to adjoining property, which has a frontage of over 1000 metres to the Port.

Q.—Do you think that the Government will consider the Company's claims from a favourable point of view?

A.—I have no doubt of it, as the concession for the South Dock is perpetual, and Art. 23 of the law approving our concession lays down "that whatever advantage or preference shall be granted by the Government to other undertakings of a similar nature shall likewise be conceded to this." The President of the Republic considers that we have the same legal rights as the South Dock Company, but, up to the present, no definite decision on the point has been given. Consequently no definite orders have been given to take to the Catalinas all goods that the parties interested ask to be deposited there when the vessels bringing them do not enter the Darsena.

Q.—Do you consider that there will be a serious rivalry between the Catalinas and the State?

A.—I do not think so absolutely, because the space at the command of the Government for the deposit of merchandise has always been comparatively small. At the end of last year, and even as lately as a fortnight ago, again, the Customs authorities were obliged to permit goods brought by lighters to the Darsena to be taken to the Catalinas Moles because they had no disposable space. At the present time casks are stored under the eaves of the warehouses. Besides, I hold certificates thrt the collection of the Customs has always been made more efficaciously through the Catalinas. As soon as commercial stability is re-established, all the warehouses in this city will be found insufficient for the ordinary trade.

Q.—Do you not find the heavy gold debt a great burden on the Company?

A.—For the moment, yes. The yearly service absorbs $300,000 gold, which represents $1,000,000 m/n; but we only occupy 60,000 varas of our land, and the board is even now engaged in negotiating the sale of part of the property; in 33 years from now the debt will be amortized and extinguished, and, we are confident that, during this long period, the premium on gold must diminish.

Q.—What is the exact area of land held by the Company, and what is the mortgage per vara?

A.—The Company owes $4,909,000 gold in London and $514,000 gold to the Mortgage Bank. On the other hand, we have buildings, machinery and plant exceeding $600,000 gold, and 733,000 square varas of land to satisfy $4,823,000 gold, that is to say, each square vara is mortgaged for $6.57 gold. We do not reckon the value of the concession.

Q.—Do you think that at the present time you can easily sell the land?

A.—I do not think it will be difficult to sell the land in the Boca, more especially if the Port Works are suspended, or proceed slowly. We are actually letting land opposite the South Darsena at 1 dollar the square vara, and have sold a plot there at $60 and another to the West of Calle Brown at $35 per square vara. Sales will be easily accomplished if the purchasers are allowed to continue the mortgages and to pay the balance either by shares in the Company or by small instalments at long dates;

Q.—Do you think any works will be carried out calculated to improve the value of the land in the Boca held by the Company.

A.—Yes; we have already commenced some; we have a branch from Almirante Brown station which will shortly join the lines on the South Darsena, and some warehouses constructed on the road. By means of this branch, cereals and produce will soon be placed on board more economically than anywhere else. Many warehousemen and consignees of produce are continually asking for this branch, which it is hoped will be opened to the public in a fortnight. The adjoining lands will then be occupied with warehouses and store-rooms which will be connected by rail with the stations and with the Darsena and Docks. Seven of the principal wholesale warehousemen have already hurried to take advantage of these exceptional facilities, and have acquired 27,000 varas in communication with the station by means of a branch running through the centre of these blocks. The Company's Engineer is now engaged in preparing plans for the construction of the buildings to be erected by the Company for these warehousemen. Besides, when the rates on the Enseñada Railway are lowered, this branch can be used for the merchandise landed at La Plata. We also intend to build a storehouse with lifts for the purpose of cleansing grain.

Q.—What funds have you with which to carry out these works?

A.—The proceeds of the sale of the 300,000 varas on the South Dock held by us which only stand in $6 m/n, or say, $2.10 gold per vara: the contract with the warehousemen I mentioned before, guaranteed by the land with the buildings thereon, in respect of which we are entitled to 10 per cent interest per annum; and other financial operations easy to realise and partly indicated by me above.

Q.—Will the Company not experience any difficulties through the default in payment of the April coupon on the external debt, which it is a matter of notoriety it was unable to meet?

Q.—The Company was unable to meet the service on its debt, because for the last 7 months it has been deprived of the income legitimately belonging to it: otherwise, its deposits would have produced sufficient for the service. The Company reckon that the Government will have to fix an amount as an indemnity for this damage. The Company is likewise entitled to the sum of $1220000 due to it by the Grand Hotels Company who have spent on the land sold to it by this Company more than $400000. This manzana alone is sufficient to answer for the debt. In addition, the Company is on the best of terms with Messrs. H. G. Anderson and T. Fowler, the trustees for the debenture-holders, who are disposed to work in friendly accord with the Company.

Q.—Have you any hope of raising this undertaking from its present prostration?

A.—I have absolute faith in it; it is only a question of time; I consecrate all my efforts to the undertaking; I have faith in the rectitude of the president and in the sympathy expressed in our regard by the Finance Minister. I have struggled with all kinds of opposition, all of which I have overcome; I am now bracing up my energies, since, in supporting a just cause, I feel I have more vigour for the strife.

COUNT VON MOLTKE.

Chief Marshal of the German Empire, Chief of the General Staff, was descended from a well-known Mecklenbourg family, and was born at Parchim, Oct. 26, 1800, in the neighbourhood of which place his father, a former officer of the Mollendorf regiment, possessed the estate of Gnewitz. Soon after Hellmuth's birth his parents settled down in Holstein; and thus the boy, in his twelfth year, went to Copenhagen, in order to devote himself, in the barracks there, to the military profession. In 1822 he entered the Prussian service, as a lieutenant in the 8th infantry regiment, and studied in the Military Academy. The war had nearly ruined his parents, and the young officer was thrown entirely on his own resources. After having spent some time in the school of Division of Frankfort-on-the-Oder, Moltke was entered into the General Staff. In 1835 he undertook a tour in Turkey, which brought him under the notice of the Sultan Mahmoud, who advised with the young Prussian officer on the reorganization of the Turkish army. Moltke remained several years in Turkey, and in 1839 took part in the campaign of the Turks in Syria against the Viceroy Mehemed Ali of Egypt and his adopted son Ibrahim Pasha. In 1845, having returned to Prussia, and published an account of his Turkish experiences, he became adjutant to Prince Henry of Prussia, then resident in Rome, and after his death, in 1847, was engaged in connection with the general command on the Rhine, becoming, in 1848, a member of the Grand General Staff, and in 1849, Chief of the Staff of the 4th Army Corps, in Magdeburg. In 1858 he was advanced to the rank of Chief of the Grand General Staff of the Prussian Army, and in 1859 became a lieutenant-general. In the Austro-Italian war Moltke was present in the Austrian headquarters. After the conclusion of peace, he spared no pains that he might fully develop the capacities of the Prussian General Staff and the Prussian Army. When the war of 1864 against Denmark broke out, Moltke sketched the plan of the campaign, and assisted in its execution, acting similarly in the case of the war in 1866. The whole plan of the Bohemian campaign was due to the Lieutenant-General, who was personally present in the battle of Koniggratz, which he led, and in like manner arranged the bold advance of the Prussian columns against Olmutz and Vienna, and negotiated the armistice and the preliminaries of peace. For these services he received the Order of the Black Eagle, and a national dotation. To "Father Moltke" (Vater Moltke), as he was familiarly termed in the German army, and his brilliant strategy are ascribed the splendid victories of the German arms in the Franco-German war. He was practically the Commander-in-Chief. The whole plan of the campaign was due to him. In recognition of his unrivalled services, Moltke was made the Chief Marshal of the German Empire (Sept. 1871), again received a national dotation, and was created Count 1872. The illustrious Marshal, who was generally regarded as the first strategist of the day, received from the Czar the Order of St. George, the highest military decoration of Russia, in Oct. 1870; and from his own sovereign the Grand Cross of the Order of the Iron Cross, March 22, 1871. An English translation of his "Observations on the Influence that Arms of Precision have on Modern Tactics," was published at London in 1871.

CRICKET.

LOMAS ACADEMY.

BOYS v. GIRLS.

The novel sight of a cricket match between girls and boys was witnessed in Lomas in the school field, in the Avenida de Meeks, on Saturday last; and very pretty the young ladies looked with their favours and sashes of the school colours.

The girls were very anxious to try their hand at the game, and thought that under certain conditions they might be able to hold their own with, if not beat the boys. The restrictions placed upon the boys were that they should bat with sticks with one hand only, bowl underhand and field with the left hand, and whenever the ball was touchad with the right hand a bye was to be allowed.

The match commenced at 11 o'clock, and Miss Hayward having won the toss elected to put the boys in first. As will be seen by the appended score, the boys won, owing entirely to the splendid play of F. Shaw (the captain) and R. Kyle, who scored 36 and 31 respectively. The principals made a very poor show and are doubtless more at home with the ferule than with broomsticks. For the girls, Miss Carrie Marshall played a grand innings of 22 not out, and gave the boys plenty of leather hunting. She bowled remarkably well too, as also did her sister, Miss Edith Marshall, these two taking all the wickets between them. Miss Hayward kept the wickets splendidly, and Miss Sotham, Miss L. Gibson and Miss Cowes distinguished themselves on the field.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The deluge of rain on Sunday morning wiped out the last rose of summer effectually, and yesterday was as cold as charity (except in this city at the present moment) too often is. Topcoats, velvet mantles and blue noses were to be seen in the streets in all their glory. Wiggins says that we shall have here a repetition of the severe winter in Europe, and perhaps some snow and skating. Hurrah!

We remind the British Hospital's legion of friends and supporters that the general meeting comes off to-day at 4 p.m., at 265 Calle Maipu.

We thank Signor Emilio Valentini for his admirable pocket map of the city, and advise our readers to call at the office of the Patria Italiana, 746 Florida, and invest 50 cents in it.

We regret to say that Mrs. Cleary, one of the Napostá colonists, died on Sunday at the Hotel de Inmigrantes, leaving her husband with two children under 3 years of age. It is some consolation to add that she received every kindness and attention from the officials. The last sacraments were administered to her by the parish-priest of the Socorro.

It is painful to add that another of the Napostá colonists died at the annexe of the Women's Hospital on Saturday, of typhus fever. She had been for some days ill at the Infirmary of the Immigrant's Hotel where she was treated with every attention, but at her earnest request was moved some ten days ago to the Women's Hospital. Everything that kindness could suggest was done for her.

We have received a note from Major Barritt of the Salvation Army about the numbers of poor English people relieved, but as it is marked "personal" we suppose it is not for publication, which we greatly regret, as the details are so touching that we feel assured our readers would help Major Barritt's efforts if we were permitted to publish it.

The German residents here have decided to give some public expression to their feelings of regret for the demise of the great soldier of Fatherland. A funeral service on an imposing scale will probably be celebrated in the German Church.

In spite of the deluge of rain on Sunday morning over a thousand ladies, children and gentlemen started from the Once Station on their pilgrimage to Lujan shrine; but the streets of the little town were in such a state that the whole religious programme had to be changed; nevertheless everything passed off well.

Maps of the war in Chile, such as they have in Europe when nations fly at each other's throats, are now selling in Montevideo, and, no doubt, the publisher will kindly send a few up here.

The death of Germany's great soldier has taken the world by surprise, as he was not known to be ill. The hand that hewed out German Unity is gone; the brain that planned it survives, but has no further work to do. We publish a biography of the "silent strategist" in another column.

Dr. Macksey has removed his consulting rooms from 164 Rio Bamba to 242 Suipacha.

The Southern Railway has wisely decided to reduce the price of monthly subscription tickets from May 1st. This is good news for daily-bread men who live in the Southern suburbs.

We publish in another column an account (written by a lady) of the first Cricket match ever played in this country in which girls have wielded the bat. It is amusing; but it may be doubted if cricket for ladies, be they little or big, will ever take root in this country—or anywhere else, for that matter.

A novel idea in insurance is that of insuring against every description of damage, whether accidental or otherwise, of coaches, carriages of all kinds, in short, all vehicles. A company has been organized for this purpose in London, with £26,000 capital. There is room for such a company here.

An esteemed correspondent in Paraná writes that everything up there is terribly dull; everybody is poor, and the necessaries of life are at famine prices. The National College employés and teachers have not been paid since January, and are getting as thin as walking-sticks, on an air-and-music diet three times a day. It is lamentably hard on the Professors, who are nearly all married, with large families to provide for.

A company has been formed at Bahia Blanca to rear frogs for Buenos Ayres tables. Stewed frog is not a bad dish, for those who like it, but we prefer the liver-wing of a turkey, or even a decent mutton chop.

The report of the doctors on the body of Leroy, the ex-French Artillery officer, which was recently found in some waste ground in Calle Tacuari, says that he was murdered by more than one person, and that the crime must have been commited over two months ago.

The National Deputies did not come to the scratch for their first preparatory sitting on Saturday. They will have another try to-morrow, and the Senators also. A morning colleague thinks that politics have something to do with the delay.

Some fun is expected to-day in the Town Council, as several members intend to bait and badger the Lord Mayor for having accepted the resignation of the Director of the Corrales, instead of dismissing him. The present Corporators, though freely elected by the citizens, seem to be very much of a muchness with their predecessors in the way of puerile squabbling and impracticable and silly projects.

Poor Cordoba is suffering from two bad tramways out of three. The papers moan and groan dismally over the infliction. What the Cordobese want with tramways at all is not clear. The learned city is such a nice size that it would be far more healthy for the inhabitants to walk, as they had to do not so very long ago.

The Capital says that all the Government employees in Rosario have now their pockets bursting with "Treasury Bonds," in which precious securities their salaries are paid. They find it, however, precious difficult to purchase a dinner or a new pair of bad boots for a hatfull of the said Bonds, which are at an appalling discount.

Alderman Rodriguez is such an extremely stern patriot that he wants to deprive the public of the only interesting sight in connection with the eternal sameness and insipidity of the May Fetes—viz: the hundreds of little girls dressed on the National colours who sing their country's Anthem in the Plaza on such occasions. The Alderman thinks that no one—not even the lovely daughters of the land—should be allowed to dress in the National colours. Rubbish! They are just the colours that look best on young girls. We suggest a public subscription to make the worthy Alderman a present of a blue coat and white waistcoat.

A Porkopolis exchange is responsible for the following horse story:—"A short time ago passengers on the Newport line of street cars noticed that the fine looking white horse that is used to pull the cars up the incline of the bridge on the Cincinnati side was missing. Inquiry elicited the fact that he had injured himself endeavoring to resent an insult, which showed his "horse sense" was fully developed. The animal was walking across to take its place, to be attached to a coming car, when some man ejected some tobacco juice in the horse's face. Instantly its ears dropped, and a vicious snap was made at the man, who took to his heels. The horse ran around the car and chased the fugitive, but slipped on the stone crossing and fell, severely injuring himself."

The National Government has sensibly rejected a patriotic offer to start a National Gazette for the exclusive publication of all National laws, decrees, etc. As such documents are published free by all the papers as matters of public interest, the Minister of the Interior is quite unable to work out in figures the advantages of the proposed Gazette, and consequently refuses to have it.

The demand for horses now for Chile is another good wind for estancieros and breeders. Balmaceda's agents are scouring this republic, paying as high as 100 to 150 dollars for any kind of horse strong enough for war purposes. They (the horses) are all taken to Mendoza and driven across the Andes as hard as they can gallop.

The New York World says that an old colonial statute hes been unearthed in Georgia which requires ministers to "read from their pulpits, at least four times a year, the public laws, so that the people may understand them."

With tears in our eyes we learn that an esteemed brother of the pen, the director of the Mensajero of Rosario, was mauled with a big stick by the police the other day, and one of his "cronistas" also. The Rosario police are sadly in want of a sharp overhauling from the Superior Courts of law. The chance of a walloping when least expected is one of the drawbacks of editorial life in this fine country.

All the properties last offered for sale by the La Plata Mortgage Bank were either sold or redeemed by the owners. Those sold fetched from three to five times more than the Mortgage. Is the Bank about to rise from its ashes?

Here's a pretty how-do-you-do. The City Fathers of Cordoba are trying to repudiate the Foreign Loan which some too confiding capitalists were idiots enough to give the learned city during the "crisis of prosperity". The argument of the present Cordoba ediles is, that their predecessors in the Council who raised the Loan are personally responsible for its service and repayment, not the city!! Will this cause another fainting fit in Lombard Street and Capel Court? We hope not.

The Town Council has very properly tossed over the Lord Mayor's recent ukase preventing small fry under 15 years of age from entering public burial grounds. His Lordship's idea was to prevent any risk to the health of the rising generation, but the City Fathers regard this as all gammon, and perhaps they are right. A ukase forbidding precocious boys to frequent billiard saloons and still worse places would be much more to the purpose than keeping them out of the "Campo Santo".

The old story. The Lands and Colonies Office and the Engineers' Department are still wriggling desperately in a mesh of red tape as to how, when and where several lots of public land in the Chaco sold in the year 1887 shall be delivered to the buyers!! Such is the sweet simplicity of land management in this splendid country.

The Amigo del Pueblo of Concordia reports that the recent rain has done wonders for the Yerua Colony, which is now as green as Ireland, and all the colonists are in high spirits. Some nights ago the wooden gate of the cemetery, the posts of the fence and iron railings were torn away by by some unknown hands.

Disraeli once described the leaders of the Opposition, who faced him across the table, as a row of extinct craters, and they didn't seem to like it.

The latest revelation in municipal affairs is that the skin-and-bone horses in the service of the Corporation cost the tax-payers over a dollar a day. The poor brutes look as if they lived on ten cents a day: so where does the balance go to?

EXCHANGE RATES—

England	13⅛d.
France	1.43 fcs.
Germany	1.15¼ marks
Belgium	1.43½ fcs.

Monday, April 27th.

Business on 'Change to-day was characterized by a rise in gold and fall in stocks, the latter being so general and marked that holders and dealers were quaking in their shoes over the prospects of an imminent collapse. Even Cedulas shared in the contagion and came tumbling down, though with this stock there is always the probability of every fresh fall bringing fresh buyers into the market. As to the rise in gold, nobody could explain the cause, and brokers dubbed it the Monday rise, which means to say the metallizing operations of those houses who collect their accounts on Saturday and buy their gold every Monday. Otherwise, there was nothing to acconnt for it, as there were no rumours and no news, everything in this regard being exceptionally quiet. Onnces opened in the morning at 57 and closed at the second hour at 57.70, sellers. The Patriotic Loan Bonds fell off to 58½, which is the lowest price yet quoted, and tends to account for the movement now on foot to petition the Government for a return of the amounts paid according to the terms of the loan, which, as will be remembered, included a stipulation to the effect that, if subscriptions fell short of the amount required and set forth, the sums paid in would be returned. It is needless to say that there is very little prospect of anything of the kind being done. National Bank shares dropped to 44, Constructors to 6.10 and Catalinas to 9.70.

In exchange, brokers reported the market rather weak to-day, and it seems that very little exchange is now offering. In the morning some bills were passed at 5.06 Paris and 5.07 Antwerp, but in the evening 5.04 and 5.05 were the rates quoted; at 48d. on London.

Mr. Bolton, district engineer, and Mr. Santos, traffic inspector of the Bahia Blanca section of the Southern Railway, left to-day for Europe on a 4 months' trip.

Late advices from Italy announce that the firm of Lavarello and Co., well-known shipping agents and owners, have suspended payment and asked for a moratorium. The amalgamation with the La Veloce is now considered out of the question.

Owing to the great and growing cost of bread stuffs in the market, the Minister of Finance called a meeting of exporters of cereals with a view to exchanging views on the subject. This meeting was to have taken place yesterday but was postponed till to-day, and it is rumoured that it will probably result in an increase of the export dues. The exporters, naturally anxious to know the exact stock of wheat in the country, telegraphed yesterday to all the principal centres of production for data, from which it appears that the actual stock on hand is about 4 million bags, a figure considerably ahead of estimates.

La Union of Tucuman announces that Mr. P. San Germes of Santiago del Estero, sugar manufacturer, has purchased in the former province 2 million arrobes of sugar-cane at prices ranging from 16 to 21 cents and requires a million arrobes more, which will mean 600,000 dollars for the province of Tucuman, besides another 100,000 dollars for freights.

The Board of Public Works, in reporting on Messrs. E. de Vedia and M. Mendoucas' proposal to make a plan of the city, recommend it to be shelved as unnecessary, the Engineers' Department having made a complete plan of the old borough in 1887. The expense attendant on the making of a new plan is, however, the main cause of the proposal being shelved.

The s.s. Coleridge cleared to-day for Southampton and Antwerp with full passenger list and the following cargo: 8257 salted hides, 2000 dry hides, 7660 bags of wheat, 1897 boxes meat extract, 25 cases glycerine, 698 bags meat flour, 25 bales hair and skins and 1508 bales of wool.

The Custom House receipts to-day amounted to $203,487.93 paper. The total received to date amounts to $117,455.29 gold and $4,771,336.83 m/n.

The s.s. Galicia arrived in Montevideo to-day from Liverpool and will be up to-morrow.

Captain Dobson of the s.s. "Scottish Prince" of Houlder Bros' Line, reports having spoken a supposed torpedo boat, "Jorge," under sail 40 miles N.E. of Cape Palome, from London to Buenos Ayres, direct 96 days out.

Mr. Frederick Benelishe has proposed to the Government a mining expedition with a view to securing samples and exact data of the mineral resources of the Republic. He dwells at length on his 20 years' experience of this class of work in this country, which qualifies him admirably for the task, adding that the expedition will last a year, and is bound to be most fruitful of result.

Mr. G. M. Woodgate has asked that packet privileges should be granted to the ss. Scottish Prince belonging to Houlder Bros, to trade between Liverpool and the River Plate.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Archer, of Rosario, took leave of their numerous friends to-day, being about to leave for Europe in the R.M.S. Tagus on a 12 months' trip.

Mr. J. E. Turner, of lumber renown, also took leave to-day, and leaves in the Sorata, Pacific liner. His trip to the old world will occupy some 5 or 6 months, during which time he will be ably represented by Mr. R. W. Odlum, who holds full powers.

Circulars were handed round to-day announcing an extraordinary general meeting of «La Buenos Aires» Insurance Company for May 1st, at which a reform in the statutes and reduction of the capital to 1½ million dollars will be treated. The shares must be deposited three days previous to date of meeting, to entitle shareholders to be present.

The great interest of the market still hinges on the banking question, and there can be little doubt now that Dr. Beracochea's project for liquidating the banks, the main particulars of which we gave in our last issue, will receive much support from Congress, especially in the Chamber of Deputies. We learn that with regard to the emission of metallic notes, it will probably be fixed at 170 millions, with which all the present issue of paper will be called in within twelve months, and very probably the Government will be authorized to sell the Madero port and its railways, with a view to giving this new emission some solid guarantee ; the sale, however, only to be made on condition of the purchasers finishing the works. The State banks, furthermore, will be turned into joint-stock concerns within three months.

The following important transactions in real-estate are reported :—

Mr. F. Meeks has sold to Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez and Co. the property Huanguelen, situated in the partido Coronel Suarez, and embracing 18 square leagues, for $800,000. Mr. Alexander Roca has sold to same firm 23 leagues of land in Rio IV. for $380,000, making an enormous profit on the business, as he purchased the land at the rate of $1000 per league. Dr. Jofre has purchased the Llambi property in Calle San Martin, between Tucuman and Temple, for $180,000.

The Deposites Committee of the Cedula Holders' League have received an enormous reinforcement of coupons corresponding to January and April, which the owners preferred to lodge with the League rather than accept the miserable pittance offered. The depositors are so numerous that the Committee request a full and clear statement of the owners' names and addresses and the series and coupons delivered, in order to avoid delay.

A rather curious question has arisen with regard to the properties offered for sale by the Provincial Mortgage Bank. Amongst those advertised recently was an estancia in Castelli, the owner of which had offered payment of the arrears in coupons. This was refused and the auction advertised, when application is made to the Courts to stop the sale. This was acceded to by the Judge pending the hearing of the action, and the sale has, of course, been suspended. It may lead to many other properties being removed from the sale list now.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastim duras sanan facilmente, y se ha en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.
